CONCLUSIONS

Conclusions

- An assessment of market data indicated low to no correlation between budget and ROI.
- This drove the decision to limit our budgets to $10MM or less to mitigate risk of high expenditure while also providing ample opportunity for ROI.

Conclusions

- Within this budget class, the company should focus on the Horror and Thriller genres. They have a high ROI and a high proportion of critically acclaimed films.

Conclusions

Work with WRITER - DAMIEN CHAZELLE

Highest ROI with experience in horror and thrillers

Oscar Wins include 'The Last Exorcism Part II'

Experienced working within our budget
